Brief Report

The Department of English, ASDGDC,(W) (A) organized a Guest Lecture titled "Effective Body Language: Key to Success" for I & II year Degree students on 12 February 2020. The Resource Person was Ms. Y. Jaya, Assistant Professor of English (C), UCEK, JNTUK, Kakinada.

After formal Inauguration, the key note speaker started her lecture by emphasizing the importance of different communication skills and said that Body Language helps to sell ourselves. Then she spoke on the significance of Body Language and its role in day to day life. Being an informative speaker, she shared different elements of nonverbal communication: facial expressions, gestures, postures, chromatics, proxemics, olfactics with variety of illustrations and examples. Next she elaborated the importance of nonverbal cues during the time of Group discussions, debates, public speaking and interviews. Pressing with comprehensive work experience, she explained with PPT.

The lecture was very informative and interactive that the students were able to comprehend about Non-verbal Communication. She also quoted some films to watch on Body Language. It was very interesting and fruitful session. The students were very much benefited .

Resource Person Mr. Y. Tanya Lecturing Using PPT
