

DEPARTMENT OF SANSKRIT

S.No	Year	date	Name of the activity	No. of students participated
1	2018-19	29-6-18	Poetry Recitatio	40
2	2018-19	28-7-18	Departmental Seminar	50
4	2018-19	25-8-18	Departmental Spardha	60
5	2018-19	27-8-18	Sanskrit day	100

29.06.2018

The Department of Sanskrit organized a Poetry Recitation event titled “Ramayanum - Kishkinda Khanda Abhijanam”, which was a significant academic and cultural activity aimed at engaging students with the timeless epic, the Ramayana. The focus of the recitation was the Kishkinda Khanda, an important section of the Ramayana that deals with the adventures of Lord Rama in Kishkinda, particularly his meeting with Hanuman and the pivotal search for Sita. The event was designed to foster an appreciation for classical Sanskrit literature while helping students enhance their recitation skills and deepen their understanding of the epic’s themes, characters, and language.

28.7.2018

The seminar began with a detailed introduction to Maharshi Vyasa, his life, and his monumental contributions to Sanskrit literature. Vyasa, who is traditionally regarded as the compiler of the Mahabharata, was presented as one of the most influential figures in Indian culture and literature. “Vyasasya Praadhanyata - Samskruta Vangmayam”, focusing on the contributions of Maharshi Vyasa to Sanskrit literature. This seminar was attended by 50 participants, including students and faculty members.

“Ramayanum, Mahabharatam - Ithihasa Vishayani”. The quiz was designed to test and enhance students’ knowledge of the two great Indian epics, the Ramayana and Mahabharata, and their role as Ithihisas (historical narratives). A total of 60 students participated in the quiz, which was a collaborative effort by various faculty members. The quiz event began with a brief inauguration ceremony, where P. Satya Nagaveni, Hindi faculty, welcomed the participants and highlighted the importance of understanding the Ramayana and Mahabharata in the context of Indian culture, history, and ethics. The quiz aimed to deepen students' knowledge of the Ithihisas, focusing on key events, characters, and moral lessons from both epics. It also encouraged students to engage with these texts critically and analytically. The students participated enthusiastically, demonstrating their knowledge of the epics. The competition among teams was intense, with each team showcasing a deep understanding of the subject matter.

spardha-Sanskrit-kavyas.I,II,III Semesters students participated.

Sanskrit day celebrations:27.08.2018”

100 students participated-workshop -on the topic impotense of sanskrit. Students presented-postersonvariessciencethemeslike Embryology,electronics,chemistry,yoga,ayurveda,poets,ramayana,mahabharta,etc.,,student s got a chance to learn that Sanskrit is the origin to all old& modern scientific knowledge through this workshop.

The workshop included a picture presentation by students, which demonstrated the influence of Sanskrit on various fields such as Chemistry, History, Mathematics, Computers, and Economics. The event was a part of the larger celebration of Sanskrit Day, aimed at highlighting the importance and relevance of Sanskrit in modern disciplines. “Sanskrit – The Mother of All Languages”. The workshop included a picture presentation by students, which demonstrated the influence of Sanskrit on various fields such as Chemistry, History, Mathematics, Computers, and Economics. The event was a part of the larger celebration of Sanskrit Day, aimed at highlighting the importance and relevance of Sanskrit in modern disciplines.

Outcome: The workshop was a resounding success, with students demonstrating a clear understanding of the role of Sanskrit in various academic fields. The picture presentations highlighted the depth of Sanskrit’s influence across disciplines, and the students’ enthusiasm and creativity made the event both informative and engaging. The workshop not only celebrated Sanskrit Day but also promoted the interdisciplinary significance of this ancient language in contemporary education.

