BEST PRACTICES

TELUGU POEM RECITATION

1. Objectives of the Practice:

Telugu poetry has a rich tradition that spans thousands of years, shaped by the culture, language, and history of the Telugu-speaking people.

Telugu poem recitation is a part of the curriculum to promote literary appreciation, language skills, and public speaking. Students learn to recite poems to improve their fluency in Telugu, as well as to analyze and appreciate literary techniques.

2. The Context:

The context of Telugu poem recitation is shaped by several factors including its cultural, educational, and literary significance. It involves the oral presentation of poetry written in the Telugu language, typically focusing on conveying the aesthetic, emotional, and intellectual elements of the poem. Telugu poetry can be understood in terms of its evolution, themes, styles, and the periods that shaped it.

3. The Practice:

The practice of Telugu poem recitation involves the oral presentation of poetry written in the Telugu language, emphasizing correct pronunciation, expression, and understanding of the poem's themes. This tradition serves both educational and cultural purposes, fostering a deeper connection with the language and its literary heritage.

4. Evidence of Success

Every day one student recites Neethi Padyam and explains its meaning at College Assembly. This programme has been started on 21-2-2022 in the eve of Mathrubhasha Dinotsavam.

Telugu Poem Recitation at College Assembly

Every day one student recites a poem and explains its meaning during the College Assembly.

5. Outcome:

The practice of reciting Telugu poetry encourages critical thinking, allowing students to engage with the content of the poem and interpret its meanings. They gain insight into themes such as love, nature, social issues, and moral lessons that are prevalent in Telugu poetry. The recitation of poems also aids in memory development, as students are encouraged to memorize verses and present them without looking at the text. This helps improve recall, focus, and the ability to express oneself.
