STOPPING BY WOODS ON A SNOWY EVENING

- ROBERT
FROST

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

DAFFODILS

⇒ WILLIAM WORDS WORTH

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

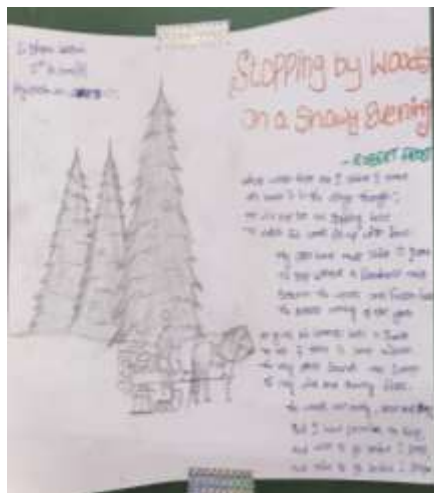

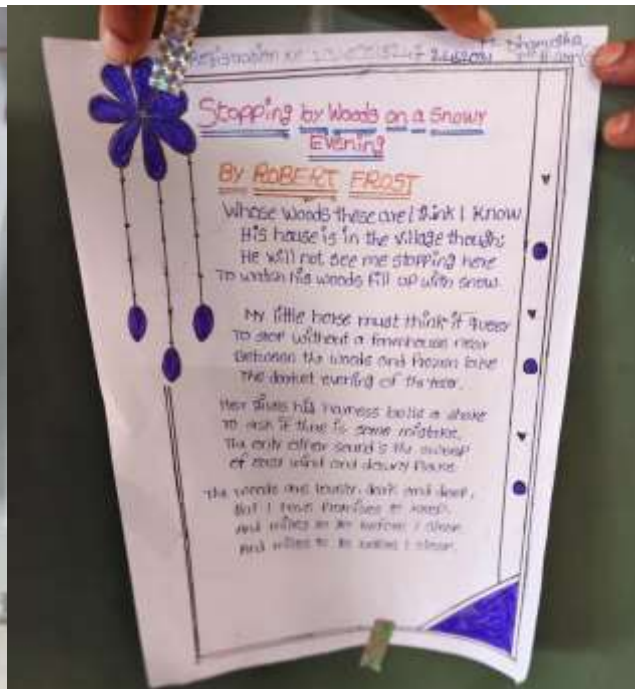

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay:
Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

The waves beside them danced; but they
Out-did the sparkling waves in glee;
A poet could not but be gay,
In such a jocund company:
I gazed - and gazed - but little thought
What wealth the show to me had brought:

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils.

English Language Day 23-04-2025

On the occasion of the English Language Day, on April 23, 2025 the department of English A.S.D Government Degree College Autonomous, Kakinada celebrated this eventful day to entertain and inform students about the history, culture and achievements associated with English Language. English Language Day, on April 23, celebrates English's beauty and evolution, coinciding with Shakespeare's birth and death, whose contribution to English literature greatly enriched the language.

English Language Day 2025: Significance

English holds a special value in global communication. It is the most popular worldwide spoken language and serves as the common medium of communication in global affairs, diplomatic relations, education, business, science and whatnot. The day is not just a celebration of grammar and vocabulary but also of literature, creativity and the history of English.

The event was aimed at promoting the importance of the English language and its usage in daily life. English is the most Spoken language in the world- serving as a bridge for international communication among people from different countries. Even for those whose mother tongue is not English, it has become an essential part of their daily life- from education and business to media and travel. The celebration started with a welcome speech by the Head of the Department, Dr.P.Sanjotha, who emphasized the significance of learning and speaking the English language.

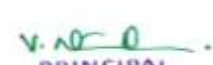

Later Dr.P.Shanthi, Lecturer in explained students why this day was celebrated and the importance of English Literature towards communication. She also encouraged the students to read the abridged version of Shakespeare plays which are available in departmental library and in the central library to know the great ness of William Shakespeare.

Students enthusiastically participated in this event by reading out the biography of Shakespeare, famous quotes from Shakespeare plays and the Chronological order of Shakespeare writings on the stage with great zeal, showcasing their knowledge and skills in the English language.

The day ended with the vote of thanks given by Ms.B.N.Prathyusha, Lecturer in English. In her words the department was highly impressed by the quality of the performances and praised the students for their efforts. She concluded that the English Day celebration was a fantastic opportunity for students to celebrate their love and understanding of the English language and to showcase their language skills.
