About the College

A.S.D. Government Degree College for Women, Kakinada, was started with the motto: 'Sthree Vidya Pravardhataam' – 'Women Education Shall Prosper'. The idea came up with the inspiring words :

"A Man's education being the education of an Individual, a Woman's education is the education of a Family"

~ Mahatma Gandhi

About the Department

The Department of English was established in 1962.

The faculty impart Language skills through literature to the students implementing innovative teaching pedagogy like Activity Based Language Teaching (ABLT), Communicative Language Teaching (CLT) and Blended Language Teaching techniques in the classrooms, which help the students compete with their counterparts in the global job market.

About the Webinar

In today's fast-paced society, knowledge alone is insufficient. What genuinely distinguishes successful people is how they communicate and present themselves. That's where soft skills come into play: teamwork, problem-solving, emotional intelligence, time management, most crucially communication. Speaking wisely means expressing your thoughts clearly, confidently, and politely. It's not just about using great words; it's about connecting with others, listening carefully, and responding thoughtfully.

To act sharply implies to remain attentive, think fast, and perform professionally. Whether you're in a classroom, an interview, or speaking in front of a group, your actions speak louder than your words. Soft talents enable us to develop connections, handle issues, and make sound decisions.

THE STORY OF THE THREE POTS

Once upon a time, a farmer had three clay pots. Every day he carried water from the river to his house, using these pots and to a great extent his children.

Two of the pots were perfect, but the third pot had a small crack in it. Because of the crack, some water leaked out while the farmer walked back home.

The two perfect pots were proud because they always delivered a full pot of water, but the cracked one felt very sad and ashamed. It thought it was useless because it could only carry half the water.

One day, the farmer fell asleep in the house and said, "I am sorry because of my crack, I cannot succeed and never do my job properly."

The farmer smiled kindly and said, "How you carried the beautiful flowers growing along the path on your side?"

The pot looked curiously and saw many colorful flowers blooming along the road.

The farmer explained, "I planted those seeds on your side of the path. Every day the water that leaks from you waters the flowers. Because of you, I can see those flowers in bloom every year."

The cracked pot felt happy and proud, realizing that its weakness had become something useful and beautiful.

Moral of the story
 Everyone has weaknesses, but our weaknesses can also create something beautiful and useful.

THE TREE OF TRUE FRIENDSHIP

Once upon a time, in a peaceful village, there lived two boys named Sameer and Arjun. They were best friends since childhood. They studied in the same school, played together every evening, and did some everything with each other.

When their village there was a big ramp in it. It was their teacher's floor. Every day after school, Sameer and Arjun would go under that tree, talk about their dreams and get motivated.

One day Arjun said "when we grow up, I want to become a teacher and help children learn."

Sameer smiled and said "and I want to become a doctor and help sick people."

They both laughed and promised each other that no matter what happened, they would always remain friends.

Years passed, and they continued their studies. But one day something unexpected happened. Sameer's family found serious financial problems. His father lost his job, and they did not have enough money for Sameer's school fees.

Sameer believed they wouldn't be able to pay the fee, thought he might have to stop school.

One evening he got badly upset. The evening had begun, and he felt sad, and about "Why are you so sad today?"

Sameer slowly told him about his family's problem. He said "I don't continue my school, Arjun, you're very sad after hearing this, so I can't come and thought deeply about how to be so his friend."

The next morning Arjun came to his friend's and explained Sameer's situation. Arjun's parents were kind-hearted people. They agreed to help Sameer with the school fees.

When Arjun told Sameer about his parents' help, Sameer said "I will never forget your support."

Arjun replied, "Friends always help each other, your dream is important."

Years passed again, both friends studied very hard. Sameer finally became a doctor, and Arjun became a teacher in the same village.

Sameer opened a small clinic and helped poor villagers without taking money. Arjun taught children with great dedication.

One day, while sitting again under the same old mango tree, Sameer said "If you had not helped me that day, it would never have become a doctor."

Arjun smiled and said "A true friend never lets another friend give up!"

The villagers admired their friendship and often had a lesson about the strong bond between Sameer and Arjun.

Their friendship proved that kindness, support, and trust make friendship strong and meaningful.

Moral of the story
 True friends support each other and help each other succeed in life.
