Objectives of the Programme

- To promote environmental awareness among students and sensitize them to the importance of afforestation.
- To encourage students to actively participate in tree plantation drives and contribute to ecological balance.
- To highlight the role of trees in reducing pollution, conserving biodiversity, and mitigating climate change.
- To instill a sense of social responsibility and sustainability in young learners.
- To integrate eco-friendly practices into academic and co-curricular activities of the Chemistry Department.

Outcomes of the Programme

- Students gained practical experience in afforestation by planting saplings within the college premises.
- Enhanced awareness of the ecological importance of trees in maintaining environmental balance.
- Around 27 students actively participated, showing enthusiasm in both plantation and eco-themed activities.
- The programme fostered a spirit of collective responsibility towards environmental conservation.
- Students developed a positive attitude towards sustainability, linking chemistry with environmental protection.
