- A student shall not commit or cause breach of peace inside and around the College campus.
- Students are prohibited from indulging in games, even in small groups, anywhere in the College premises during lecture hours.
- Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited. Disciplinary action will be taken against those who violate this rule. It is mandatory for all students and guardians to sign an affidavit in the pro forma prescribed by the University of Calcutta related to ragging.

Violation of Codes of conduct

Any damage or defacement of college property is a punishable offence. If a college property is found damaged in a classroom while the class is assembled the loss may be recovered by a fee imposing upon the whole class if the students responsible for such damage cannot be detected.

- Habitual misconduct/repeated breach of the College Rules & Regulation will be considered as a grave offence and will result in suspension/expulsion of the student with immediate effect.

Academic integrity

The principles of academic integrity require that a student should:

- Properly acknowledge and cite use of ideas, results, materials onwards of others.
- Properly acknowledge all contributions to a given piece of work.
- Make sure that all assignments submitted are original.
- Perform academic activities without the aid of impermissible materials or collaboration and by obtaining all data or results through ethical means.
- Have right to pursue their educational goals without interference.

Violation of Academic integrity

Academic integrity refers to an essential quality that an institution must uphold to fulfill its academic objective and research mission, and hence its violation constitutes a serious offence. The principles of academic integrity form an integral part of the code of conduct to which all the students of the institution must adhere. Breach of this code puts into question both the reputation of the Institution and the value of the degree awarded to the students. Every pupil of the Institution should be responsible to ensure the highest quality of the academic integrity.

ANTI-RAGGING

The Institution implemented a strict and effective anti-ragging policy based on the UGC Regulation of Ragging in Higher Educational Institution, 2009. This UGC Regulation was framed in accordance with the directions issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India to prevent and prohibit ragging in all Indian Educational Institutions and Colleges.

Ragging constitutes one or more of the following acts:

- Any conduct by any student or group of students –whether through spoken or written words on physical act-which has the effect of fearing or misbehaving any student,
- Indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities or asking any student to do any act which such student will not in ordinary course do and thereby causes shame, annoyance, torment, hardship, embarrassment which inflict intense psychological harm or raise fear on apprehension in any student.
- Any act by senior students that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any student.
- Any act of financial extortion put on any student.
- Any act of physical abuse including sexual abuse, stripping, forcing in lewd acts on gestures causing bodily harm to any student.
- Any act of verbal or written abuse such as calling foul names, insulting publicly, offensive emails which embarrass, annoy and discomfort any student.

- Anti-ragging Committee: This committee shall examine all complain of anti-ragging and come out with recommendation based on the nature of the incident and proper investigation.

VIOLATION OF ANTI-RAGGING:

A student or group of students found guilty by the anti-ragging committee will attract one or more of the following punishment action by the college authority:

- Suspension from attending classes and academic privileges.
- Withholding / withdrawing scholarship/ fellowship and other benefits.
- Debarring from appearing in any test/examination or other evaluation process.
