GROUP DISCUSSION
2024-2025

A Group Discussion is a methodology used by any Organization to judge whether the candidate has certain personality traits and/or skills that it desires in its members. In this methodology, the group of candidates is given a topic or a situation, given a few minutes to think about the same and then asked to discuss the same among themselves for 15 to 20 minutes.

The evaluation parameters are clarity of speech, content, confidence and body language.

ONLINE LEARNING V/S OFFLINE LEARNING REPORT

The students participated in the Group Discussion have expressed their views as follows:

Group A:

- Available to anyone with internet access; can reach remote areas.
- May require physical attendance, which can limit access for some students.
- Offers flexible scheduling, allowing students to learn at their own pace.
- Typically follows a fixed schedule, which may benefit structured learners.
- May lack face-to-face interaction, potentially affecting engagement.
- Facilitates direct interaction with peers and instructors, enhancing collaboration.

Group B:

- Varies widely; some courses are high-quality, while others may lack depth.
- Generally, realise on established curricula and qualified instructors, but can still vary in effectiveness.
- Requires a higher level of self-motivation and discipline; some students may struggle without a structured environment.
- Provides a routine and accountability through in-person attendance.
- Students can create their own learning spaces but may face distractions at home.
- Structured classrooms can enhance focus, though some may find them stifling.
